Imperial Hotel Tokyo

The Imperial Hotel came into being in 1890 the year, Meiji 23 as a state guest house, at a time when the country had set its sights on modernization. Having experienced the Meiji, Taisho, Showa, Heisei and Reiwa eras, we are now preparing ourselves to start on a new journey to welcome guests for the next hundred, or even two hundred years, to come as a "Made in Japan" hotel. As we look toward the 150th anniversary of our hotel's opening in 2040, we want to create a new stage where the next generation of hotel staff can welcome customers with smiles and verve.
